

Information about Finnish students studying medicine abroad

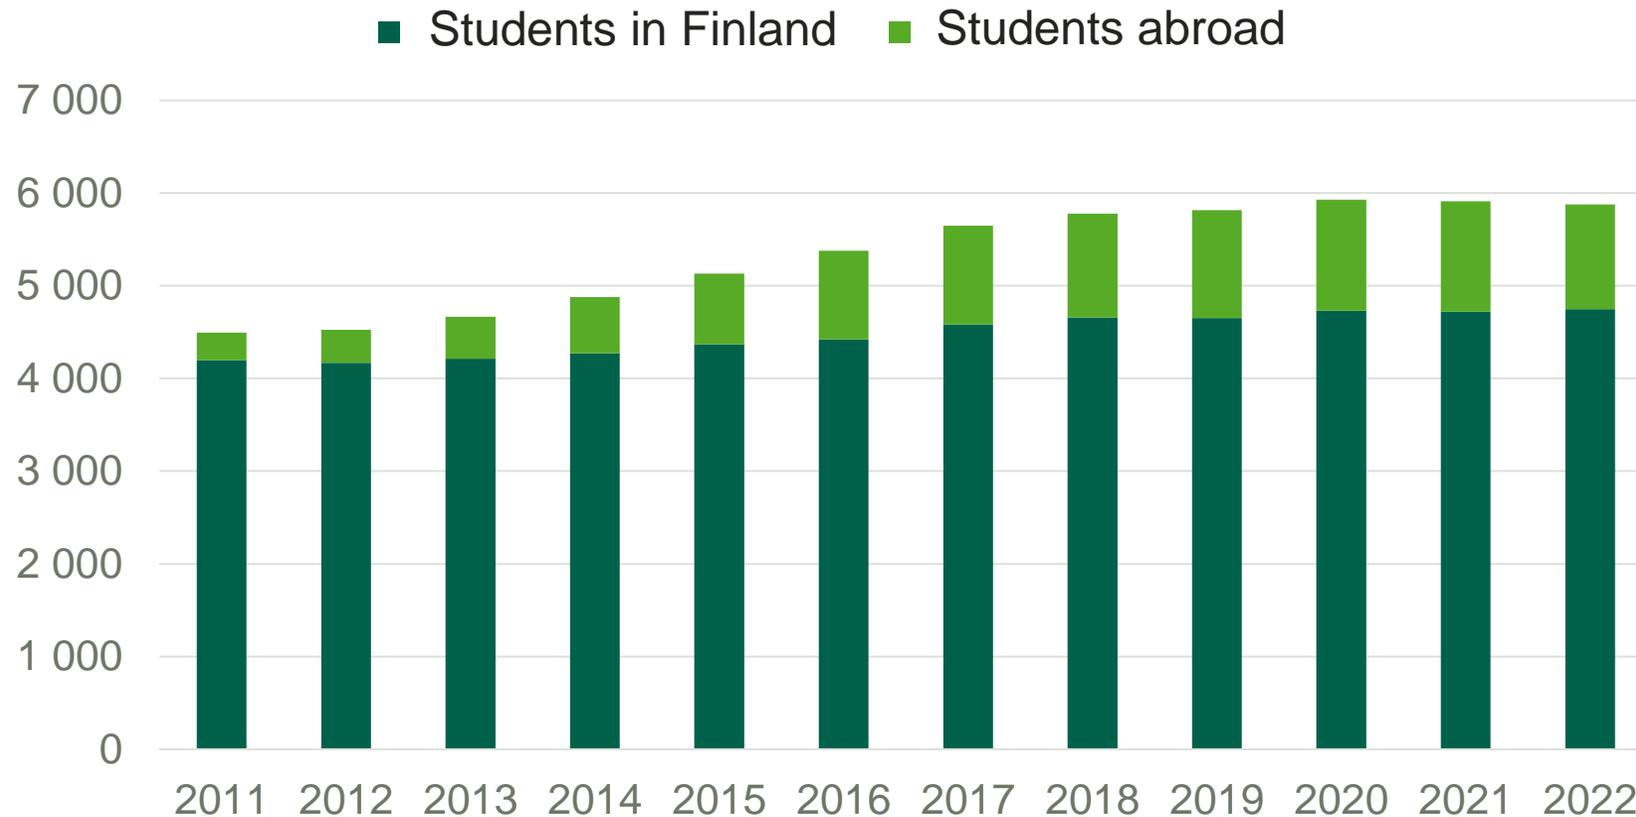

The number of medical students abroad has increased.

Currently, the highest number of students is in Latvia, Romania, and Sweden.

The majority of students intend to return to Finland to work as doctors after graduating.

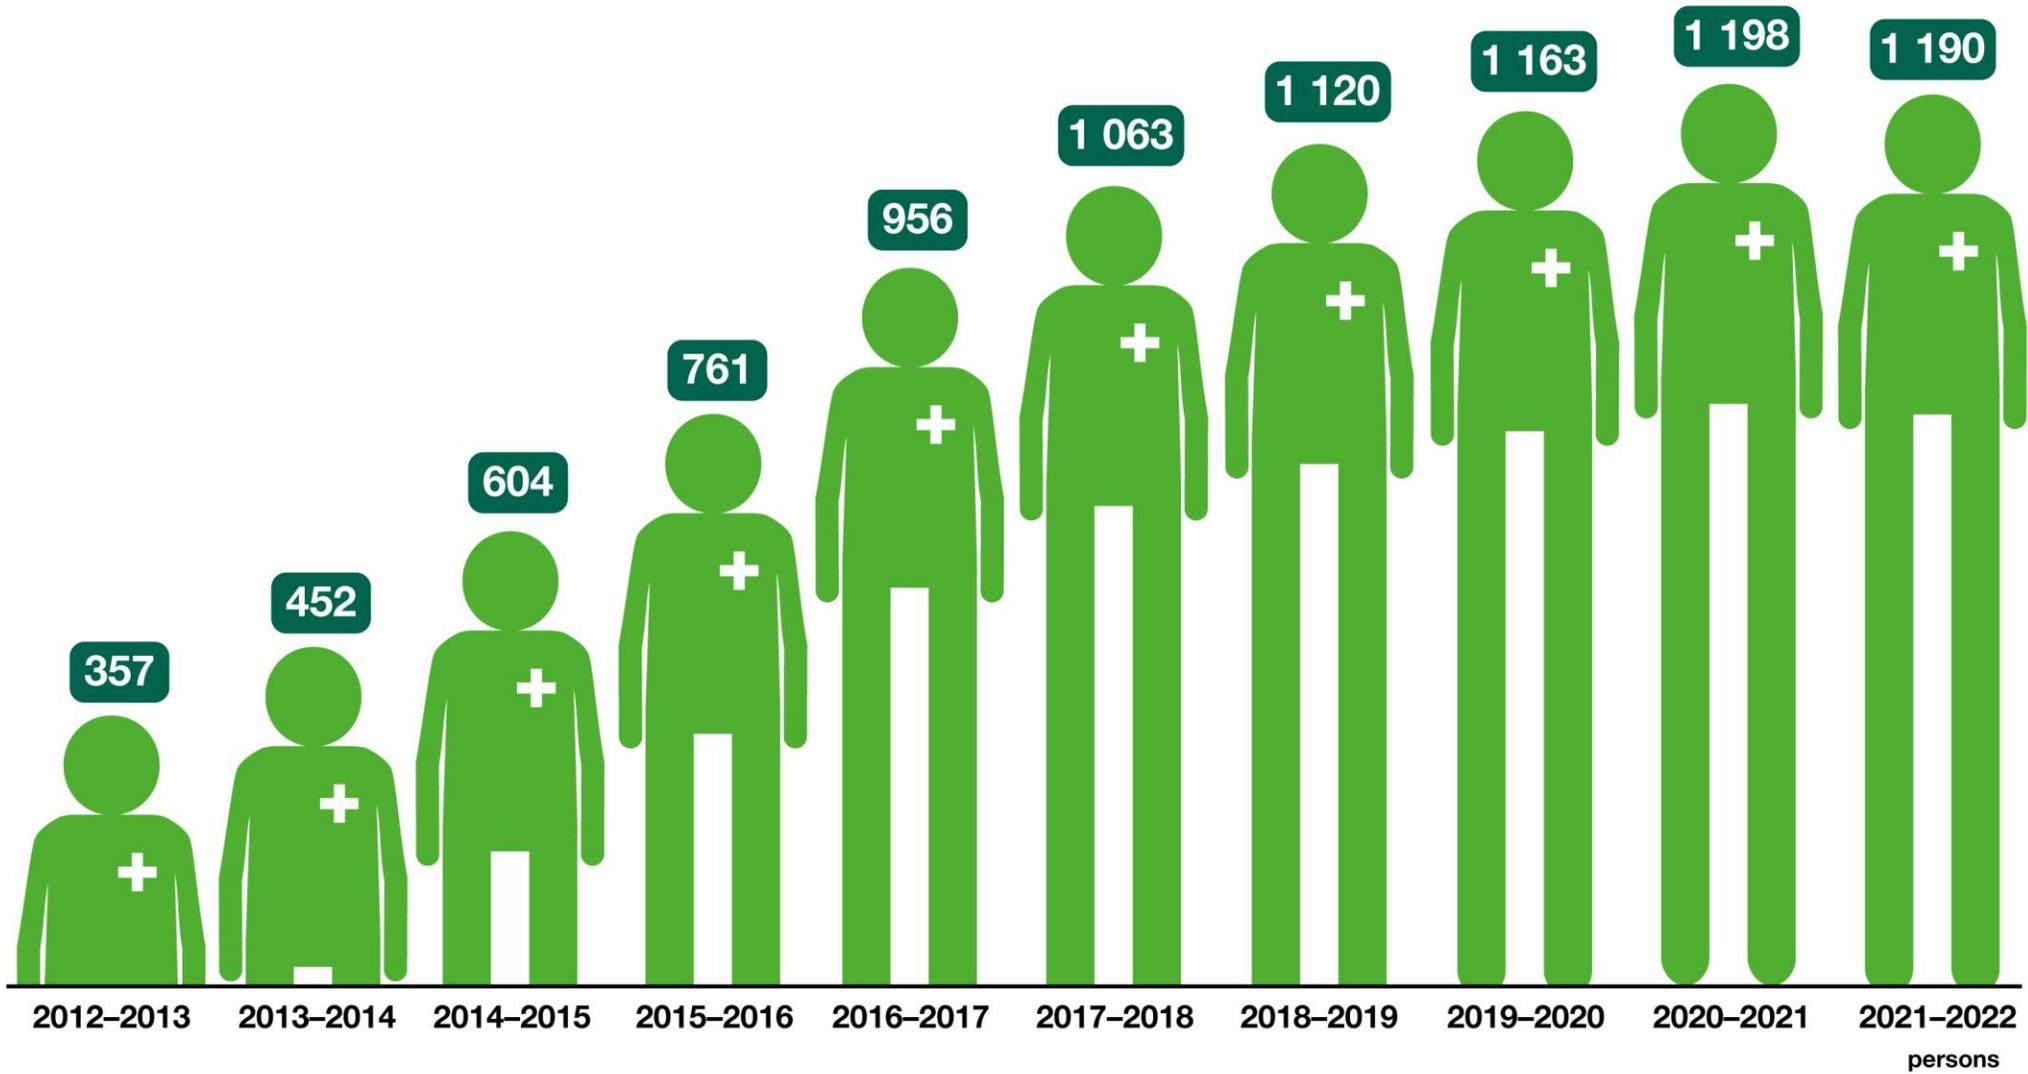

Medical students in Finland and abroad 2011–2022

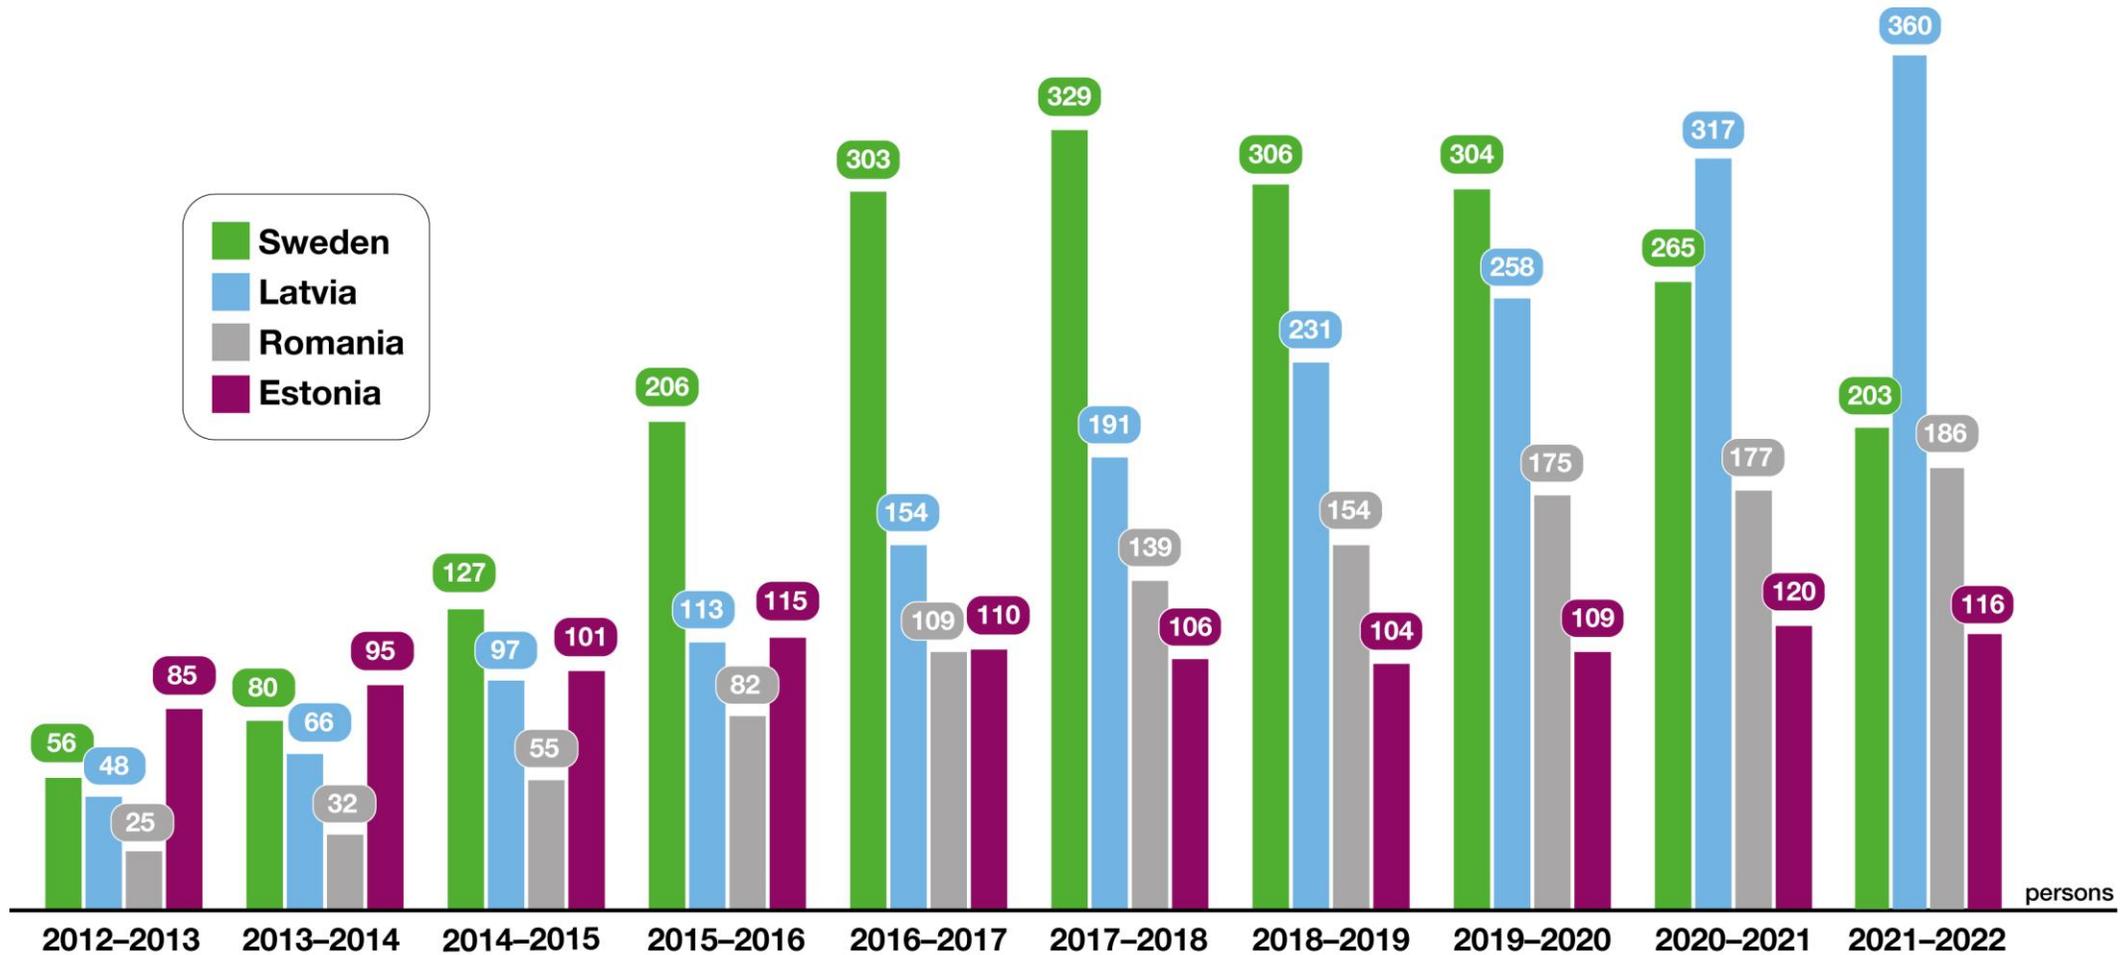

Students studying a medical degree abroad

Academic years 2012–2022

Students studying a medical degree abroad

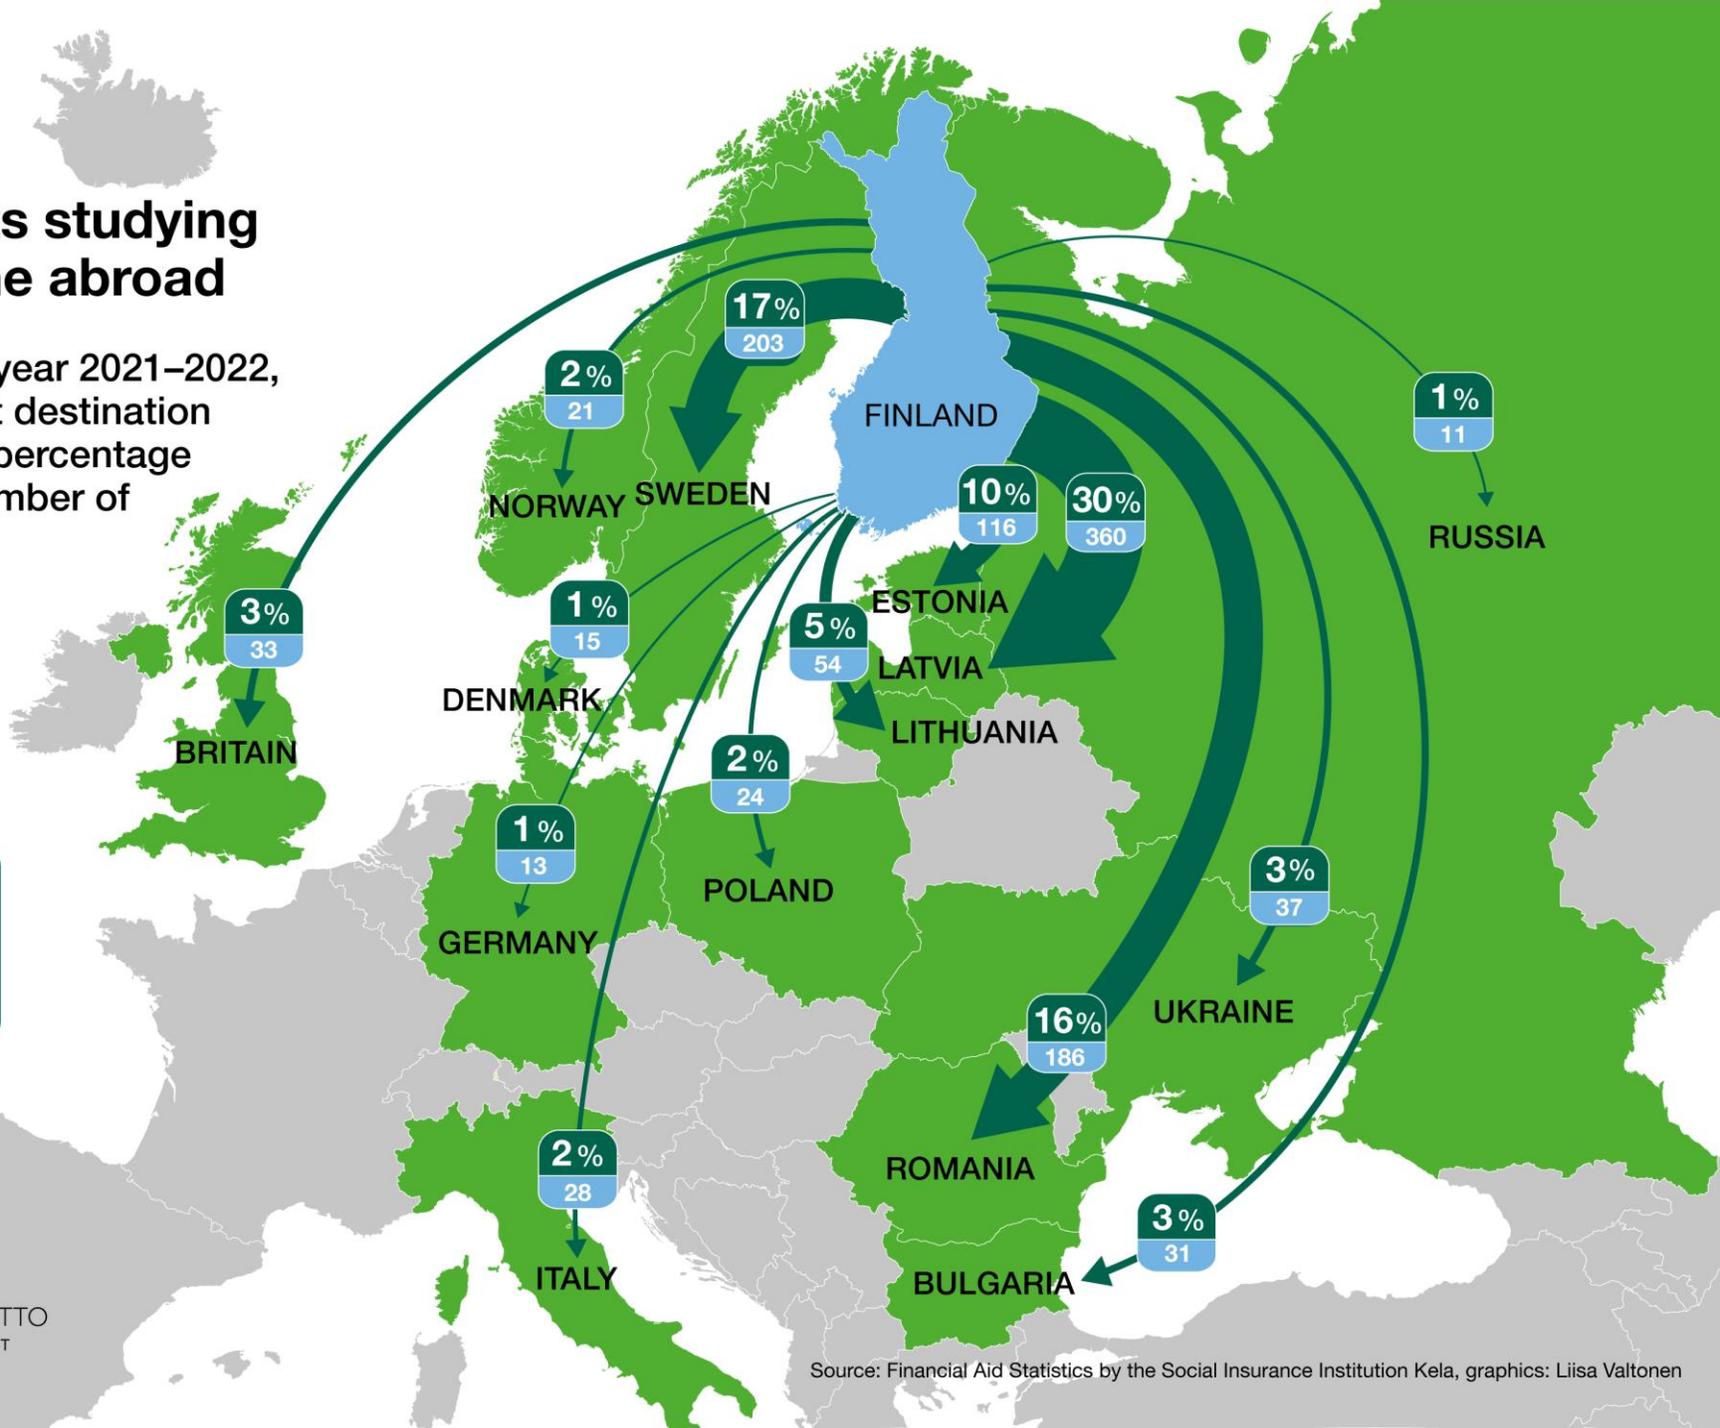

The top four destination countries, academic years 2012–2022

Students studying medicine abroad

Academic year 2021–2022, the biggest destination countries, percentage and the number of students

A total of 1 190
students

Intentions to Return

Ninety percent of the students plan to return to Finland after graduation.

Do you plan to return to Finland for work after graduation? %

